

Glossary

Culture	the shared understandings, patterns of behaviour, practices, and values of a group of people (these are constantly changing)
Globalisation	the communication of ideas, information, interaction, and social forces on a world-wide scale
Heritage	practices, ideas, and objects that are often passed down from one generation to another
Migration	the movement of people
Perception	the way a people, a place, an idea, or an event is viewed
Traditions	beliefs or customs handed down through generations, either orally or through accepted practices and ways of working
Values	a person's beliefs or standards; judgments of what is valuable or important in life